

Local Municipal Official Appointed to AMO

Toronto, ON, August 22, 2014 – At the Annual Conference of the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO), Lynn Dollin, Chair, Ontario Small Urban Municipalities and Councillor, Town of Innisfil, was appointed to the AMO Board of Directors, Small Urban Caucus. As a member of the Board Lynn will help set policy for the Association and serve as a key municipal leader in the Province.

“AMO benefits from membership from across the Province, and a Board that reflects the diversity of Ontario’s municipal governments. To that end, I am pleased to have Lynn on the 2014-2016 Board team,” said AMO President, Gary McNamara.

AMO’s key advocacy priorities are focused on achieving fiscal sustainability for municipal governments, advancing federal, provincial partnerships for infrastructure and strengthening municipal legislative authority to advance local economic prosperity and environmental sustainability.

AMO is a non-profit organization representing almost all of Ontario’s 444 municipal governments. AMO supports strong and effective municipal government in Ontario and promotes the value of municipal government as a vital and essential component of Ontario and Canada’s political system.
